

Murray-McCabe Wedding Party

Williams' Home Scene of Dinner For Baron Rosen

Miss Gertrude Frances McCabe The Bride of Rowland Murray

Grants Return To Washington; At Root Home

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Williams entertained at dinner last evening complimentary to Baron Rosen, the Russian ambassador. Invited to meet Baron Rosen were the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Walcott, Mr. and Mrs. Hennen Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins, Mrs. Horace Lee Washington, wife of the United States consul general-at-large of Europe; Mrs. Talbot, Miss Jennings, Commander Culver, Walter Berry, and Francis G. Colton.

Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. James, of the British embassy, entertained at dinner last evening Capt. and Mrs. Raymond P. Rogers, Captain and Mrs. Hebbinghaus, of the German embassy; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Watson, of the British embassy; Miss Marion Oliver, Hon. Nina Kay Shuttleworth, of England, and Capt. Sherwood A. Cheney.

Some Howard, counsel of the British embassy staff, and Lady Isabella Howard, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son Monday, December 23.

Bryces Entertain.

The British Ambassador and Mrs. James Bryce entertained at an informal afternoon tea yesterday afternoon in the embassy, on Connecticut avenue, in honor of the Hon. Nina Kay Shuttleworth, daughter of Lord Shuttleworth, of England, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. James, wife of the military attaché of the British embassy, Mrs. Bryce's sister, Miss Ashurst, of England, who is her guest in the embassy.

Only about forty guests were invited for the afternoon.

Representative and Mrs. J. Sloat Fassett, of New York, were their guests Miss Bender, of California.

Mrs. Richard Townsend, of Washington, is a guest at the Plaza Hotel, New York city.

Miss Roosevelt Coming Here.

Miss Christine Roosevelt, of New York, will spend the month of January in Washington, two weeks at the White House and two weeks with Senator and the Misses Keen.

"The Senators." Washington's club at Cornell, gave a delightful holiday dance last evening in the ballroom at the Shoreham. The room was tastefully decorated with Christmas flowers and foliage and with the Cornell colors, red and white, in pennants and flags. A novel feature of the evening was the dance and the singing of college songs during the intermission.

The committee in charge of arrangements included Frank West, Richard Cumpston, C. Fitch, and Frank F. Marlowe.

Mrs. Garlington, wife of Gen. Ernest Garlington, entertained at luncheon in honor of Mrs. Thompson, wife of Major Thompson, of the Ordnance Department.

Malone-Franzoni Wedding.

Miss Edith Elizabeth Franzoni, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Franzoni, and granddaughter of Carlos Franzoni, the sculptor, will be married this evening to Dr. Wilson Preston Malone, of Virginia, at 8 o'clock at her parents' home, 635 Massachusetts avenue. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. George A. Dougherty, secretary to the president of the Catholic University. The bride will wear a white gown, and only the members of the two families will be present.

Among those from out of town will be Mrs. R. P. Paine, sister of the bridegroom, of Fairfax, Va., and her sons; daughters; Miss Louise Brandon, niece of the bridegroom, of Fairfax, Va., and James Malone, brother of the bridegroom, of New York city.

Bishop and Mrs. Earl Cranston will throughout the winter the various Methodist congregations of the city. Mrs. Cranston will be at home Saturdays during the season.

Burglesons Entertain.

Representative and Mrs. Burgleson, of Texas, entertained at a Mexican dinner

MR. AND MRS. ROWLAND W. MURRAY, Who Were Married This Morning at St. Paul's Catholic Church.

Miss Gertrude Frances McCabe, daughter of the late P. Tate McCabe and Mrs. McCabe, of Bayswater, London, England, was married this morning at 11:30 in St. Paul's Catholic Church to Rowland W. Murray, of Claremont, Fifeshire.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Mackin. The church was decorated with Christmas decorations, chiefly holly. The bride, who was unattended, was given in marriage by Hopewell H. Darnelle.

B. Lamb Jackson, brother of Mrs. Hopewell H. Darnelle, acted as best man. Instead of his brother, Robert Murray, who was unavoidably detained in Cincinnati.

The bride looked very charming in a handsome point lace robe, Empire style, made over silk and chiffon with white satin trimmings and a semi-train. She wore a tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms and carried a white suede prayer book with long white satin markers, at the end of which were attached white orchids.

The march from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's wedding march were played. The ceremony was followed immediately by a breakfast in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Hopewell H. Darnelle on Columbia Heights, which was most effectively decorated with pink and white roses, palms, and ferns. The color scheme in the drawing room was green and white and that of the dining room pink and white.

The invitations to the breakfast were limited to the friends of Miss McCabe. Mrs. Darnelle received the guests in a becoming gown of old blue broadcloth and a large black picture hat trimmed with pale blue-carrying a shower bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray left later for a future home in Atlanta, Ga. The bride wore a traveling dress of gray cloth and a gray beaver and velvet hat trimmed with gray poppies, and a long traveling coat with baby lamb collar and cuffs.

honor of her daughter, Mrs. Julian Ripley, of New York, who, with her husband, is visiting her parents for the holidays.

Miss Leech's Debut.

Miss Katherine Leech, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Frederick Leech, will make her debut this afternoon at a tea in the home of her parents, on Massachusetts avenue.

Miss Mary Lodge McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert McKee, and granddaughter of the late President Harrison, will be presented to Washington society at a large tea this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Raucher's.

Mrs. McKee and her debutante daughter have taken apartments at the Grafton, and will spend most of the winter in Washington. In court this morning the debutante by the old friends of her mother.

BRIDE AND GUESTS WAIT, BUT THE MAN IS MISSING

WASHINGTON, Pa., Dec. 28.—Local society has been furnished with a sensation by the failure last night of Charles Davis to appear at his intended wedding. His bride-to-be, Miss Elizabeth Clark, a prominent and accomplished girl, was ready, the clergyman, the Rev. C. H. Frigg, was on hand, and nearly 200 guests were at the residence of Mrs. A. H. Boyer, Miss Clark's stepmother; but Davis did not appear. After waiting for a half hour a messenger was dispatched to the Davis home, but Davis was not there, and has not been seen since.

Instead of breaking down and crying, Miss Clark, when informed that the wedding must be postponed indefinitely, informed the assembled guests: "I am glad I have discovered Charlie is a quitter before it was too late."

MILLIONS OF CLAMS ON BEACH.

ATLANTIC CITY, Dec. 28.—Millions of surf clams, wrested from their beds by the storm tides, have been cast up on the lower beach. The clams can be used for food, but they are not the kind sold in the markets. The surf clams are used by the fishermen, but catch and are worth from $1 to $2 a barrel.

barons and carried a white suede prayer book with long white satin markers, at the end of which were attached white orchids.

The march from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's wedding march were played. The ceremony was followed immediately by a breakfast in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Hopewell H. Darnelle on Columbia Heights, which was most effectively decorated with pink and white roses, palms, and ferns. The color scheme in the drawing room was green and white and that of the dining room pink and white.

The invitations to the breakfast were limited to the friends of Miss McCabe. Mrs. Darnelle received the guests in a becoming gown of old blue broadcloth and a large black picture hat trimmed with pale blue-carrying a shower bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray left later for a future home in Atlanta, Ga. The bride wore a traveling dress of gray cloth and a gray beaver and velvet hat trimmed with gray poppies, and a long traveling coat with baby lamb collar and cuffs.

Miss Mary Lodge McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert McKee, and granddaughter of the late President Harrison, will be presented to Washington society at a large tea this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Raucher's.

Mrs. McKee and her debutante daughter have taken apartments at the Grafton, and will spend most of the winter in Washington. In court this morning the debutante by the old friends of her mother.

ENDS LIFE AFTER FIGHT WITH HIS PURSUERS

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—After a fight with detectives from this city who went to Kingston, N. J., to arrest him, Nick Bonanno, wanted on a charge of murdering Marino Caeti here Christmas Day, killed himself to prevent capture today. One of the detectives was fatally wounded.

TO DISCUSS ARMY LAUNDRIES.

Capt. Ewing E. Booth, Seventh Cavalry, has been ordered to this city for a conference with the Quartermaster General of the Army, on official business pertaining to the plans for laundries and their construction. The Quartermaster's Department has under advisement plans for the construction of new and improved laundries at several army posts.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Fitch.

W. J. Krouse 737 9th St. N. W.

Lieut. Ulysses S. Grant, 3d, and Mrs. Grant arrived in Washington this afternoon to spend the remainder of the holidays with Mrs. Grant's parents, the Secretary of State and Mrs. Root, in their home on Rhode Island avenue.

Last evening Lieutenant and Mrs. Grant, who recently returned to New York from a visit to Lieutenant Grant's aunt, Mrs. Potter Palmer, of Chicago, were the guests of honor at a large dinner given at Sheraton by Major Gen. and Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant.

The dinner was served in a private dining room and the table was tastefully decorated with American beauties and lilies of the valley.

Some of the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Root, Jr., Mr. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Swift, Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Shipman, Miss Edith Deacon, Miss Corinne Douglas Robinson, Oren Root, Jr., Edward Root, and a number of other prominent people.

Mrs. Shapley, of Philadelphia, and Miss Guthrie, of Pittsburgh, arrived in Washington last evening and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Frederick Leech in their home on Massachusetts avenue.

Mrs. Shapley will remain in Washington until December 31. Miss Guthrie will make a long visit with Mr. and Mrs. Leech. She spent last winter in Washington in the Connecticut.

Irwins at Stoneleigh Court.

Robert Irwin, his daughter, Miss Marion Irwin, and his sons, Robert W. Irwin, Jr., and Richard J. Irwin, of Philadelphia, have arrived in Washington and have taken apartments in Stoneleigh Court, where they will remain for part of the season.

Baron Preuschen, naval attaché of the Austrian embassy, and Baroness Preuschen, were hosts at dinner Thursday evening in their apartments in the Highlands. Their guests were Captain Hebbinghaus, naval attaché of the German embassy, and Mrs. Hebbinghaus; Baron Henning, consul general of Austria-Hungary at New York; Baron Ambrose, Baron Haymerle, and Mr. Sert-Ivany.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page entertained at dinner last evening.

Mrs. Peyton Russell entertained at a bridge party yesterday afternoon.

Browns Dinner Hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. David R. C. Brown were hosts at a dinner last evening in honor of their house guest, Miss Caldwell, of San Francisco. Among their guests were Robert W. Irwin, Jr., and Richard J. Irwin, of Philadelphia, Lieut. and Mrs. Bulmer, Miss Ide, the Misses Brown, Capt. Fitzhugh Lee, Captain Logan, Cyrus Miller, and William Peasey. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have taken the residence of Col. and Mrs. Otto Hein, 198 Twenty-second street. Grant Watson, of the British embassy, and Mrs. Watson occupied the house last season.

Miss Carve Cahn, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Max Weyl, of R street.

Adolph Hertzberg has returned to his home in Baltimore, after being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hertzberg, of Eighteenth street.

Miss Alma Prince, of 1323 Sixteenth street, will be the delightful surprise party Wednesday evening in honor of her birthday. An enjoyable lunch was served, after an evening of games and music.

Those present were: Miss Maud Garner, Newport News, Va.; Miss Edith Auerbach, Miss Alma Prince, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Peyser, Sydney W. Straus, Baltimore; Milton Strasberger, and Zion D. Burnstein.

A Letterman has been spending a few days in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Harris and guest, Miss Miriam Mayer, of New York city, will be at home tomorrow evening after 7 o'clock at 223 New York street northeast.

Miss Fannie K. Levi, of Eighteenth street, has left town for a visit to Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New York city.

Miss Harris, who is attending the Bristol school, is spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. S. Morris, of Seventeenth street.

Dr. Milton Hahn, of New York city, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hahn, of P street.

SNOW SAVES MAN'S LIFE; JUMPED OFF FAST TRAIN

WINSTED, Conn., Dec. 28.—A snow saved the life of Louis Vendetti today. He boarded the wrong train for Waterbury and did not discover his mistake until the train was steaming along at a lively rate of speed. Then he rushed to the car platform, climbed over the gate and leaped.

The train was stopped as quickly as possible and Vendetti was found half-conscious and half buried in a drift at the bottom of a 40-foot embankment near the station, suffering from shock, but uninjured.

TO SING CHRISTMAS CANTATA.

Geibel's Christmas cantata of "The Nativity," which was deferred last Sunday evening, will be given tomorrow evening in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church with the full choir and Anton Kaspar, violinist.

KODAKS Make Suitable Gifts $1 to $35

W. J. Krouse 737 9th St. N. W.

ALEXANDRIA REVIVALS FOLLOW QUARTERLY MEETING

Dr. Meyer, Assisted by the Rev. E. M. Sandys, to Conduct Services.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ALEXANDRIA, VA., DEC. 28.

The quarterly meeting service, opened at the Free Methodist Church in South Lee street Thursday, will be followed by a series of revival services conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. A. W. Meyer, assisted by the Rev. E. M. Sandys, of Washington. Services were held Thursday and Friday. Today services were held as follows: District quarterly conference at 8:30 a. m.; preaching, 2:30 p. m.; praise, 7:30 p. m.; preaching, 7:45 p. m. Tomorrow the services will be as follows: Sunday school, short session, 10 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 a. m.; sacrament, 11:30 a. m.; old-time love feast, to which all are invited, 2:30 p. m.; young people's meeting, 7 p. m.; preaching, 7:45 p. m.

On New Year eve night, December 31, a watch night service will be held from 9 o'clock until five minutes after midnight. The quarterly meeting services are being conducted by the Rev. A. G. Miller, district elder, assisted by the preachers of the District.

Bartlett Gets Divorce.

In the corporation court today Judge Louis C. Barley, presiding, a decree for absolute divorce on the grounds of desertion was entered in the case of George Ward Bartlett against Anna M. Waterman Bartlett.

Yesterday a decree of divorce on the ground of desertion was entered in the case of Mabel Huff against Warren R. Huff.

Masons Elect Officers.

Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Worshipful master, J. Edward Shinn; senior warden, R. W. Fuller; junior warden, H. C. Catbush; senior deacon, E. H. Kemper; junior deacon, S. W. Pitts; treasurer, R. W. Arnold; secretary, A. G. Uhler; chaplain, the Rev. P. A. Phillips; clerk, C. F. Timberman.

Odd Fellows Meet.

Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows held a meeting last evening at which arrangements were completed for the visit the lodge will make to Falls Church Lodge, No. 11, next Thursday evening. Potomac Lodge degree staff will confer the second degree on nineteen candidates of the Falls Church Lodge.

ALLOWED PRIZE FIGHT, MILITIA MAN CONVICTED.

DES MOINES, Dec. 28.—Capt. Oliver W. Kulp, of the Iowa National Guard, commanding a Davenport company, was convicted of disobedience of orders in failing to stop the prize fight in Davenport, November 12, and is to be reprimanded.

The verdict was communicated by the recent court-martial to Governor Cummins, and was disclosed today with the findings of the executive, who says officially that as he has no power to increase the penalty and no desire to lessen it he is compelled to approve it.

The telegraph companies are held to have been "absolutely without justification or excuse" and guilty of "gross negligence" in failing to deliver the telephone message to the Davenport company, and it is decided that their course be accounted for "only for their desire to have the exhibition take place."

DIED TO SAVE WOMEN, SUICIDE'S NOTE SAYS

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Through a note written by Henry F. Terry, previous to an attempt to kill himself in San Francisco a year ago, his relatives are hopeful of clearing up the mystery which drove him to give up his life last night in Prospect Park, Brooklyn. This note said, in part, that he was dying "to save the honor of more than one woman and the family from which I sprung."

The letter has never been explained. Terry comes of a well-known old family of Brooklyn, and was reported to be worth $250,000, largely accumulated through the operation of fruit farms in California and Arizona. So far as known to his relatives, there was no cause for him to end his life.

They deny grief over his mother's death had unbalanced him, and say that he had not had a love affair in years.

MAKE X-RAY EXAMINATION TO LOCATE BUCKSHOT

Dr. Edmund Berry will make an x-ray examination of Policeman Ray C. Ault's right foot today to locate the buckshot which entered it yesterday during a hunting trip. Ault was carrying his gun with the muzzle pointed to the ground when the gun was accidentally discharged.

Dr. Berry says he will be able to pick out each of the shots after the x-ray examination, and after that danger of losing the foot will be passed.

INFANTRY LIEUTENANT RESIGNS.

President Roosevelt has accepted the resignation of Second Lieut. Chester H. Loucheim, Twelfth Infantry, to take effect at once.

TAFT WILL BE SPEAKER AT CLEVELAND CLUB DINNER

CLEVELAND, Dec. 28.—Secretary Taft will be the chief speaker at the McKinley Day banquet of the Tippecanoe Club here January 23. The invitation to Secretary Taft was called to him while he was abroad. The Secretary's acceptance was not made public until today. The banquet will be preceded by a reception to Secretary Taft.

SICK HEADACHE

Positively cured by these Little Pills. They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A certain remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Headaches, and all ailments arising from Biliousness and Derangement. Taste in the Mouth. Coated Tongue. Stomach Troubles. TORPEDO LIVER.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

They regulate the Bowels. Purely vegetable. Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

TAFT WILL BE SPEAKER AT CLEVELAND CLUB DINNER

CLEVELAND, Dec. 28.—Secretary Taft will be the chief speaker at the McKinley Day banquet of the Tippecanoe Club here January 23. The invitation to Secretary Taft was called to him while he was abroad. The Secretary's acceptance was not made public until today. The banquet will be preceded by a reception to Secretary Taft.

SICK HEADACHE

Positively cured by these Little Pills. They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A certain remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Headaches, and all ailments arising from Biliousness and Derangement. Taste in the Mouth. Coated Tongue. Stomach Troubles. TORPEDO LIVER.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

They regulate the Bowels. Purely vegetable. Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

TAFT WILL BE SPEAKER AT CLEVELAND CLUB DINNER

CLEVELAND, Dec. 28.—Secretary Taft will be the chief speaker at the McKinley Day banquet of the Tippecanoe Club here January 23. The invitation to Secretary Taft was called to him while he was abroad. The Secretary's acceptance was not made public until today. The banquet will be preceded by a reception to Secretary Taft.

SICK HEADACHE

Positively cured by these Little Pills. They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A certain remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Headaches, and all ailments arising from Biliousness and Derangement. Taste in the Mouth. Coated Tongue. Stomach Troubles. TORPEDO LIVER.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

They regulate the Bowels. Purely vegetable. Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

TAFT WILL BE SPEAKER AT CLEVELAND CLUB DINNER

CLEVELAND, Dec. 28.—Secretary Taft will be the chief speaker at the McKinley Day banquet of the Tippecanoe Club here January 23. The invitation to Secretary Taft was called to him while he was abroad. The Secretary's acceptance was not made public until today. The banquet will be preceded by a reception to Secretary Taft.

DISCUSS NEW ROAD AT MEETING TODAY

Board of Directors of W. and G. Road to Decide on Construction.

To decide upon the date for beginning of construction of a new railroad for Washington is the purpose of a meeting of the newly elected board of directors of the Washington, Westminster, and Gettysburg Railroad Company, to be held at the New Willard this afternoon.

The plans of the road have already been announced and surveys of the route have been made, but operations have not as yet begun.

The new board of directors includes three Washington financiers. William H. Saunders, Robert N. Harper and A. A. Chapin. The other officers and directors are Dr. J. B. Colgrove, president; Walter Atlee, Baltimore, chief engineer; and Edwin P. Thomas, Allen Parquhar, both of Sandy Spring, Md.; Edwin H. Miller, New York; G. H. Birnie and Edwin Reindollar, of Taneytown, Md., and T. F. McGlone, Baltimore, directors.

Mr. Harper said this morning that although he was financially interested in the company, he had been elected to the board without his knowledge and that he would probably decide not to serve, on account of his other interests. Mr. Saunders declined to say what would be done in advance of the meeting this afternoon.

It is said the line will be about ninety miles long, with a branch from Damascus to Frederick of twenty miles. A steam road is planned and is intended to open the rich rural territory between the Capital and Gettysburg and also to meet the demand for a direct route to the thousands of tourists that visit Washington.

ARREST MAN AS THIEF WHO GOT $1,061 BOOTY

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—His whereabouts betrayed to the police by a companion whom he had deserted in Atlanta, Ga., a man believed to be Clarence Zeigler, formerly a receiving clerk of the Long Island Express Company, who disappeared on November 27 last at the same time a package containing $1,061.44 was missed, was arrested today in San Francisco.

Detectives from this city are on their way to San Francisco to identify the man, who gave his name to San Francisco police as Fella. If he proves to be Zeigler he will be brought back here on a charge of grand larceny.

Detective Delta, who was assigned to the case, traced Zeigler from this city to Boston, and then to Atlanta. He met a man who said he had been traveling with Zeigler and was already in the man's hands. Zeigler, upon reaching Atlanta, gave him $25 and then left him. The man betrayed Zeigler to the police.

DENVER GIRL WEDS RICH INDIAN CHIEF

DENVER, Dec. 28.—News of the wedding of Miss Cora Marie Arnold to Albino Chavarria, a full-blooded Indian, at Santa Fe, N. M., last Monday has reached here.

The ceremony was witnessed by the bride's sisters, Miss Lillian and Geneva Arnold, of Denver.

Chavarria is well to do. He is chief of the Santa Clara Indians in New Mexico. With a large number of his tribesmen he was in camp here five years ago, when Miss Arnold's father, a wealthy man, met him and formed an attachment for him.

Her stepfather left a will in which he disinherited his stepdaughter because of her refusal to give up her Indian sweetheart. The sisters of Miss Arnold finally consented to the marriage, and the man was taken to the States.

HOSTESS SHOTS HERSELF; GUESTS WERE AT TABLE

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Dec. 28.—Leaving her guests to a turkey dinner at the table, Kate Thompson, aged forty-six, last night went to her bedroom and shot herself in the neck. The guests, hearing the report of the shot, rushed to the room and found the woman lying on the bed and a revolver nearby.

James Thompson, brother of the woman, with his wife and daughter, nephew, and William Doyle, who were guests at the turkey dinner, are under arrest.

CRUISERS AND GUNBOATS ASSIGNED SPECIAL DUTIES

Orders were issued by Capt. Cameron McK. Winslow, acting chief of the Bureau of Navigation, today to the cruisers Des Moines, Prairie, Tacoma, and the gunboats Scorpion, Dubuque, Paducah, and Marietta from the Atlantic fleet and assigning them to special service.

It is possible that these vessels will form a part of the new Atlantic fleet, to be organized in the near future.

PROTEST AGAINST POOL ROOM.

Protest has again been made to the Commissioners regarding a pool room at Thirteenth and D streets southeast by John McGee, president of the Protesting. He claims the place is disorderly. When the matter was referred to Capt. H. Matthews, of the Fifth precinct, he made a report sustaining the charges.

When the proprietor applied for his license on November 3 vigorous protest was made, but the license was granted. The case was re-opened on November 28, and since then many complaints have been received.

DOCTORS

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a doctor's medicine. Doctors prescribe it, endorse it. Use it or not, as your doctor says.

TAFT WILL BE SPEAKER AT CLEVELAND CLUB DINNER

CLEVELAND, Dec. 28.—Secretary Taft will be the chief speaker at the McKinley Day banquet of the Tippecanoe Club here January 23. The invitation to Secretary Taft was called to him while he was abroad. The Secretary's acceptance was not made public until today. The banquet will be preceded by a reception to Secretary Taft.

SICK HEADACHE

Positively cured by these Little Pills. They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A certain remedy for Dizziness, Nausea, Head